

Nära®

Bassinet

When closeness matters most.

There are few moments in life more important than the time a mother first spends with her newborn.

These first moments of an infant's life are crucial to lifelong development. It is during this time that a mother bonds skin-to-skin with her newborn, creating warmth and establishing an emotional connection.

A new idea in the world of bassinets, Nära's simple, safe design brings mothers close to their newborns during the time when closeness matters most.
